Copyrighted Material

This book is designed to help improve urology residents' in-service scores and to provide a concise review for busy urologists who plan to take the board examinations. The authors expertly condense the essential urological concepts into a single, reliable reference source. Every aspect of this study guide was designed to achieve rapid results in the shortest amount of time. Most material is presented in a bullet-point format so that the reader can gather high-yield information without being bogged down by minutiae. Red and blue color coding allows for easy navigation and quick reference. High-yield information, key studies, and figures combine complex information to improve memory recall. During actual testing situations, complex disease treatment algorithms, such as testicular and prostate cancer, are included.

Jason D. Fisher, MD completed his Urological Surgery residency at Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. He received Urology Certification in 2002. Prior to 2001, he worked as a Director of Quality at the University of South Florida Health Science Center, a Member of Business Administration at the University of South Florida, and a Bachelor of Science at Texas A&M University. Dr. Fisher developed his clinical skills to organize, coordinate, and provide knowledge in a succinct and memorable fashion. During his academic career, which included several teaching appointments, he recently received the honor of "Teacher of the Year" from the Central Florida Urology Group. Dr. Fisher and his wife, Tracy, raised the birth of their first child in the fall of this year. When he is not practicing urology, he enjoys college football (particularly the Aggies), fishing, reading, and spending time with his wife.

Tarek Pacha, MD completed his urology residency from Michigan State in 2012 after graduating from Michigan State University. He was among the highest scoring residents in the country. In his first year, he scored in the 90th percentile on the state in-service exam. The following two years, he scored in the 98th, 99th, and 99th percentiles, respectively. He recently passed the written portion of the urology boards. He also was on the winning urology faculty team during the North Central Section meeting as well as the Michigan Urology meeting. He is currently in private practice in Atlanta at Cook North Medical Center.
